

Good craic with a Catalonian twist on 28 February 2012

This unique experience for your customers, partners
and staff, includes:

- ✓ Catalan food using recipes dating back to Roman times
- ✓ Locally sourced organic ingredients
- ✓ Local wines and specialty beers
- ✓ Live music including Spanish guitars
- ✓ Exclusive atmosphere (the whole venue is booked for your party alone)
- ✓ English-speaking staff
- ✓ Gift bag for every guest

Una festa catalana

A Catalonian Evening Party

Treat your guests in style at the Mobile World Congress 2012
Catalonian Party - Tue. 28 February 2012

Recommended by:

After a grueling day at the show, unwind in a relaxing atmosphere with live Spanish music, delicious traditional Catalan dishes and drinks, while enjoying meaningful discussions with your clients, business partners and staff.

This 'festa catalana' is set in a typical Catalan restaurant bar in El Born, the vibrant medieval quarter of Barcelona, easily accessible by metro, taxi or on foot.

Come to this invitation-only party from 7:30pm and enjoy until midnight what will be an evening to remember during the week of the MWC 2012.

Cost is €80 pp. all inclusive; payment is due by 31 January 2012

PS: This event can only go ahead if a minimum of 70 guests is reached, so please sign up soon.

To book please email a request to mwc@sagnard.biz indicating the number of tickets you want to purchase. This event is managed by technology marketers Sagnard Associates Ltd.